DISPENSARY.

INTRODUCTION.

THE ST. MARY-LE-BONE GENERAL DISPENSARY is instituted for administering Advice and Medicines to the Sick Poor, in all cases of Physic, Surgery, and Midwifery.

To the Charitable and Humane, this Institution appeals with the greatest confidence for support. When it is considered that each Subscriber may afford relief to many suffering poor, and rescue them from a premature grave: that he may administer Charity in the most essential way that it can possibly be given, that of alleviating Poverty struggling with Disease; which constitutes the very height of human misery.

To the female-Sex its benefits must appear the most forcible, the industrious Wife being attended with the utmost care at the time of her greatest Distress.

The treatment of the Diseases of Children, constitutes a very large share of this Charity; and Inoculation for the Cow-Pock is performed without any letter of recommendation.

The better to afford efficacy to Medicine, as the Poor are often in want of suitable food; they are supplied, at the discretion of the Physician and Surgeon, with Wine, Rice, Sago, Barley, Tapioca, &c. in all such cases, that particularly require that assistance.

The great number of Patients that have been and continue to be daily relieved by this Charity, and the great encouragement it has long experienced by the voluntary Subscriptions of the Nobility, Gentry and others, affords the most convincing proof of its utility. And there are many instances, where small industrious Tradesmen and others, who to gain the advice of a Physician and Surgeon, and the best of Medicines, at so easy a rate, have become Subscribers for themselves and families, and to such no plan can afford them greater advantages.
